

We do not want telemarketers calling our home. This is a privacy matter and we want to be left alone. We pay for our telephone service and have the right to bar whomever we want from calling us.